

Schedule of Events

Water/Ways Exhibition Hours: 10am-4pm Tuesday-Saturday
(GI Community Center) July 10-August 20

July 10 at 10am: Grand Opening

July 13 at 6pm: Screening of Keepers of the Mound- Discussion to follow:
Discussion Leaders: Ms. Jean Landry & Mrs. Claudia Burregi, MPH at the Community Center (possibly two showings if there is enough interest date & time tbd)

July 14 at 6pm: Honorary speaker Wendell Curole speaking on building communities along rivers & other waterways. How they have influenced people, landscape and industry

July 20 2-4pm: Kids Day: oyster shell art activity, bring your own crab contest, recycled art contest (bring your own), cast net throwing contest

July 21 at 10am Fisheries & Wildlife Talk & Tour: 195 Ludwig Annex (12 people max)

July 22 at 10am: Fisheries & Wildlife Talk & Tour: 195 Ludwig Annex (12 people max)

July 27 10-12pm: Historical Tour of Island- Speakers Ms.Leoda and Mr.
Ambroise

July 30 6pm: Honorary Speaker: Erik Johnson-bird migration & importance of rivers/bayous to migrating birds-inclusion of work being done to restore and preserve habitats and conduct a Q&A after.

August 7 at 4pm: Susan Bergeron - Speaking about the culture of our communities that are settled along the water and waterways of our region with a Q&A after.

August 4 at 2pm: Shrimp Shed Talk (Tour & Tasting if time permits) with Mr. Robert Collins

August 13 at 6pm: Screening of Born on the Bayou with discussion to follow - Discussion Leaders: Ms. Jean Landry & Mrs. Claudia Burregi, MPH at the Community Center
(possibly two showings if there is enough interest date & time tbd)

August 16 at 6pm: Honorary Speaker Tori Bush sharing a portion of her Anthology
"The Gulf South: An Anthology of Environmental Writing" and conducting a Q&A after.

Please note: To register for any of these events please visit

<https://www.facebook.com/Grand-Isle-LA-Smithsonian-Water-Ways-Exhibition> Each activity will have a posting where you can sign up in the chat. Every activities time & date is subject to change upon inclement weather or COVID restrictions.

BHP

Smithsonian

ENGINEERING LLC